

The ELIZABETH
Colombo 07

Victorian by design. Sri Lankan by Soul

The Elizabeth takes the formal language of Victorian architecture and softens it for tropical living, leaving behind proportion, permanence, and an unhurried sense of place.

Ayubowan Sri Lanka

In every great capital city, there exists a residence that transcends its physical form and becomes part of the city's enduring identity. A residence defined not only by its architecture, but by its address, its associations, and the legacy it carries forward. The Elizabeth, Colombo 7, is one such residence. Rising within Sri Lanka's most prestigious and tightly held residential enclave, The Elizabeth represents an ultra-exclusive opportunity to secure ownership within a landmark development defined by heritage, privacy, and permanence.

Designed for a select community of discerning residents, The Elizabeth brings together the rare integration of a historic members-only sports institution, elevated private residential amenities, and contemporary architectural excellence, creating a living environment unmatched in Colombo today.

COLOMBO 07

You don't arrive here
you are Received

The ground floor of The Elizabeth establishes the tone of distinction that defines the residence. A grand private lobby welcomes residents and guests into an environment of elegance and discretion.

This level also features a private business lounge, enabling residents to conduct professional engagements within the comfort and security of their own residence, an essential feature for today's global professionals and business leaders.

A Grand Arrival and Executive Ground Floor Experience

The arrival experience has been designed to provide both functional efficiency and a sense of quiet prestige.

The Essence of Colombo 7

The Elizabeth rises across 23 levels, thoughtfully designed to create a balance between architectural presence and residential privacy. The building incorporates a structured vertical hierarchy including a ground floor arrival level, dedicated club levels, residential floors, and a rooftop private sanctuary. The development comprises 200+ residences.

Every element of the building has been planned to deliver a refined residential experience, combining structural integrity, functional efficiency, and timeless architectural expression.
